28-02.1-10-01. Examinations.

1. The engineering and land surveying examinations must be held in the spring and fall of each year, with the time, date, and place set by the board.
2. Orientation examinations for land surveyors require a score of eighty or greater to pass the examination. An examination pertaining to land surveying laws, procedures, and practices in North Dakota shall require a passing score determined by the board but shall not be less than seventy percent.
3. An applicant failing to pass a professional examination may take the next scheduled examination after six months by payment of the examination fee provided the applicant achieved a score of at least fifty. An applicant failing to pass a professional examination with a score of less than fifty may not apply for reexamination for one year from the date of such examination.
4. The board may require one or more questions in examinations measuring familiarity with the code of ethics. Similarly, in furtherance of the board's determination of rehabilitation of a registrant whose registration has been subject to disciplinary action, an examination on the code of ethics may be required.
